The attendance at the various marketing places on the Sabbath yesterday was very large. The hot weather and the cool, shady shores, no doubt, had their influence in bringing out the people, who, after all, are the ones that make the Parks.

The Sheriff will today turn the following property over to John Wilson, appraised, and sold: Robert Hunter, John Tyler, Wilson Robbins, Thomas Hunter, and Charles Young, bought one each. Sheriff McCarthy and John Warren, bought various articles each. Washington Hoo, about fifty other items, and Patrick Gilfoyle, Robert Hunter, and Thomas Hunter, each bought a lot of articles.

Standing among the officers of Posse Comitatus No. 10, U. V. U., were such distinguished citizens as Sheriff McCarthy, Deputy Sheriffs Hoffman, Hunter, Gallagher, Wilson, Hunter, Young, Hunter, Tyler, Robbins, Wilson, Hunter, Hunter, Hunter
